CONFIDENTIAL.

For the month of November 1915.

All the Districts report that nothing unusual or untoward occurred anywhere, and that everything continues quite normal and satisfactory.

2. A rumour is reported to have been set afloat in the taluks of Kolar, Bowringpet, Mulbagal and Srinivaspur of Kolar District, that agents had been sent to secure poultry for a nominal value for the use of the soldiers at the Front. This appears to be the mischief of poultry-dealers who might have attempted to secure them at a cheap price and make large profits during the ensuing Christmas specially on Kolar Gold Fields and in Bangalore City.

3. The Amildars and the Police officers of the taluks have been advising the people against such false rumours.
